TicHome Mini

Wireless Freedom Meets Google Assistant

GOOD DESIGN AWARD 2017

Any product that's meant to be brought into the home must be curated with the utmost attention to detail. With that in mind, TicHome Mini has been recognized by Japan's acclaimed Good Design award for not only creating a look and feel that is suitable for the home, but also one intended for all experiences within the home.

REDEFINING SINGING IN THE SHOWER.

Love listening to music in the shower? TicHome Mini's IPX6 splash proof rating and hands-free music control make it the perfect shower sing-a-long companion.

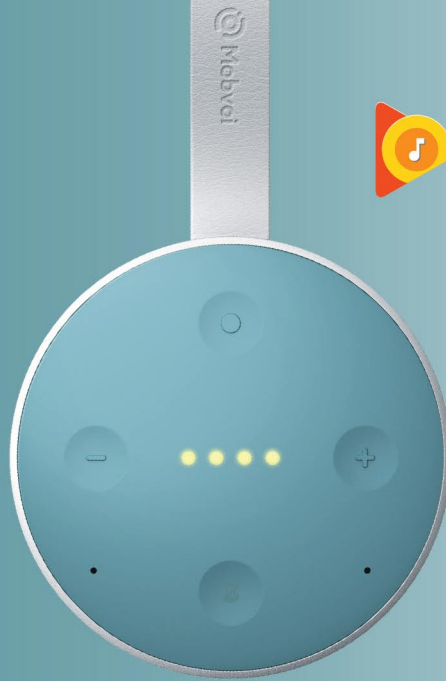

LOOK MA, NO WIRES.

We live in a wireless, mobile world. So why should your smart speaker remain tethered to a plug? TicHome Mini's built-in battery allows you to take calls, schedule reminders, or relax with a meditation session hands-free with no strings attached.

MUSIC STREAMING PRO.

Connect and voice command your favorite music apps. From Spotify to Google Play Music, TicHome Mini provides effortless integration with the widest selection of music content in the industry.
